Dear Mr. Craig:

Re: Access to Information Request Number FIN 10.14G

Thank you for your access to information request received in this office on March 27, 2014, requesting access to “Please provide documentation on any reports or analysis on demographic shifts in Saskatchewan occurring in the future and how that relates to future revenues, expenditures and debt levels. The time period for this request is January 1, 2011, to the present.”

This is to advise you that the record(s) you wish access to do not exist in the Ministry of Finance. For your information, this notification has been provided pursuant to clause 7(2)(e) of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

If you would like to exercise your right to request a review of this decision, you may do so by completing a “Request for Review” form and forwarding it to the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner within one year of this notice. This form is available at the same location which you applied for access or by contacting the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner.

If you have any questions, please contact me, Brandee Murdoch, directly at (306) 787-6744.

Sincerely,

Brandee Murdoch
Access Officer

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

- (b) transfer the application to another government institution in accordance with section 11.
- (2) The head shall give written notice to the applicant within 30 days after the application is made:
- (a) stating that access to the record or part of it will be given on payment of the prescribed fee and setting out the place where, or manner in which, access will be available;
 - (b) if the record requested is published, referring the applicant to the publication;
 - (c) if the record is to be published within 90 days, informing the applicant of that fact and of the approximate date of publication;
 - (d) stating that access is refused, setting out the reason for the refusal and identifying the specific provision of this Act on which the refusal is based;
 - (e) stating that access is refused for the reason that the record does not exist; or
 - (f) stating that confirmation or denial of the existence of the record is refused pursuant to subsection (4).
- (3) A notice given pursuant to subsection (2) is to state that the applicant may request a review by the commissioner within one year after the notice is given.
- (4) Where an application is made with respect to a record that is exempt from access pursuant to this Act, the head may refuse to confirm or deny that the record exists or ever did exist.
- (5) A head who fails to give notice pursuant to subsection (2) is deemed to have given notice, on the last day of the period set out in that subsection, of a decision to refuse to give access to the record.

1990-91, c.F-22.01, s.7.

Severability

8 Where a record contains information to which an applicant is refused access, the head shall give access to as much of the record as can reasonably be severed without disclosing the information to which the applicant is refused access.

1990-91, c.F-22.01, s.8.

Fee

- 9(1) An applicant who is given notice pursuant to clause 7(2)(a) is entitled to obtain access to the record on payment of the prescribed fee.
- (2) Where the amount of fees to be paid by an applicant for access to records is greater than a prescribed amount, the head shall give the applicant a reasonable estimate of the amount, and the applicant shall not be required to pay an amount greater than the estimated amount.
